

Non-Executive Chair of the Seafish Board and Non-Executive Board Members (x3)

The Sea Fish Industry Authority \(Seafish\) works to secure a sustainable and profitable future for the UK seafood industry by promoting and educating consumers, protecting the industry's reputation and enhancing its viability and raising standards throughout the sea food supply chain. The UK fisheries administrations are now seeking four individuals to join the Board.

Non-Executive Chair

£18,000 p.a. based on 30 days per year

The Non-Executive Chair will lead the Board, set the overall strategic operational direction of Seafish, ensuring good governance to allow Seafish to carry out its work efficiently, effectively and economically, holding the Executive to account.

The Chair must be independent of the sea fish and seafood industry and have no financial or commercial interests that affect them in their role on the Board.

We invite applications from candidates who can provide strong strategic leadership to a complex and dynamic delivery organisation during a period of significant change.

Non-Executive Board Members (x3)

The non-executive member of the Seafish board will provide strategic direction and leadership to the organisation, drive performance and hold the Executive to account against strategic and corporate plans; ensure propriety, regularity, economy, efficiency and effectiveness in the operation of Seafish and provide stewardship for the public funds entrusted to the organisation.

We invite applications from individuals with knowledge and expertise of working in either the large scale fisheries sector in Scotland, the small scale fisheries sector or the food business service.

Applications will close at 12:00 (midday) on Monday 23 October 2017.
